DB 17

When the basic skills have been mastered, and shifting gears couldn't be easier, the DB17 awaits your next big adventure. Stocked with our ever-reliable four-stroke engine plus our all-new exhaust system means superior performance for every action-packed ride. With a manual four-speed transmission, you'll get an authentic feel of a full-sized bike while riding the DB17.

Inverted forks allow you to take sudden turns with ease, and front and rear disk brakes provide plenty of stopping power. A lightweight yet durable frame paired with rugged off-road tires provides agile handling, whether you're on track or trails.

A seat height of 31 inches is suitable for many riders. With all new colors and a sleek new design emblazoned with the Tao Motor logo, you'll be the talk of the track for years to come!
